

Leadership Dublin-Laurens

Welcome our 2025-2026 class!

- Welcome to our newest class members, which includes Erica Francis, Kathryn Wilcox, Matthew Taylor, Breona Jenkins, Matthew Meeks, Casey Price, Taylor Powell, Eriana Jackson, Renia Cook, Victoria Duckels, Arilyn Erickson, Christopher McAfee, Kiley Smith, Ashley Black, and Jacquelynne Bailey.

Our newest class has participated in the advance session led by Brittany Adams-Pope, and has participated in their first community session focusing on criminal justice.

- Alumni dues were requested to be paid prior to September 30, 2025. Alumni dues are $40 per person. You may pay by check or online at our website: www.leadershipdlc.com.
- Please include the name of the alumnus when submitting payments.

What are we up to?

LDL Board Planning Session:

LDL Business After Hours

Advance Session - Leadership

Criminal justice session

SPOTLIGHTS

LDL Board - Allison Keen

Allison is a Health and Life Insurance Agent at Clements and Keen Insurance. She graduated from the University of Georgia with a BBA in Marketing and a Masters in Agricultural and Environmental Education, with a focus in Personal and Organizational Leadership.

After graduating and working in the agricultural industry, Allison returned to her hometown of Dublin to join her family's business. She currently serves as a Laurens Youth Leadership board member, and is the Chair Elect for Leadership Dublin-Laurens.

LDL Board - Forrest Kilgo

Forrest Kilgo is a Senior Manager of Financial Planning and Analysis at Smurfit Westrock. He attended Georgia Southern University and holds a BBA in Finance, MBA, and is a Certified Management Accountant.

An active community member, Forrest is a member of the Dublin Exchange club and enjoys giving back to the community. Forrest is married to Whitney Kilgo and they have two daughters, Elsie and Madelyn. They attend First Methodist Church. He is a graduate of Leadership Dublin-Laurens County Class of 2025.